

RE Unit 4.1 How are important events remembered in ceremonies?

Top Vocabulary

Freedom - the ability to move or act freely

Oppression - unjust treatment or burden by abuse of power

Celebration - a special event to remember something important

Shared values - the core beliefs that guide a group of people

Remembrance - the action of remembering something

Reflection - thinking about something to learn from it

Light has been important to many different civilisations and people throughout history.

At Diwali, Hindus light candles and lights as a representation of good overcoming evil.

At Bandi Chor Divas, Sikhs light up their homes up.

Hanukkah, the Jewish festival of light, commemorates the Maccabees' victory over King Antiochus.

