

Year 3 - Drawing and Painting & Sculpture - Summer

Tints
Adding white

Tone
Adding white and black

Ancient Egypt
One of the greatest and most powerful civilisations in history.
3150 - 30 BC

Shang Dynasty
The first Chinese dynasty.
1600 - 1046 BC

Colours can represent a mood or feeling

RED	PINK
Power, strength, energy, heat, love, passion, danger, warning, anger	Happiness, compassion, sweet, playful, immaturity, hope, inspiration, feminine
ORANGE	PURPLE
Excitement, confidence, encouragement, health, vitality, extroversion	Royalty, nobility, spirituality, luxury, ambition, mystery, fantasy, moodiness
YELLOW	BROWN
Bright, vibrant, youthful, energetic, sunshine, hope, intellect, happiness	Earth, outdoors, longevity, conservative, honest, natural, reliable
GREEN	BLACK
Earth, growth, freshness, nature, balance, harmony, money, jealousy, envy, guilt	Formal, classic, elegance, power, luxury, protection, death, mystery, evil
BLUE	WHITE
Peace, tranquility, loyalty, security, trust, intelligence, cold, fear, masculine	Purity, innocence, goodness, fresh, clean, easy, simplicity

Digital Art

using technology to create art

Sculpture

When using clay to make a sculpture, you will use these techniques:

and these tools:

Texture and mark making

Join clay shapes to a clay base using this method to connect them:

